CIA Employee Ruled Suicide

The death of Kenneth N. Wamsley, 35, a Central Intelligence Agency administrative employe whose body was found in a motel near Winchester Nov. 5, has been ruled a suicide.

Wamsley, who lived at 7816 Penley pl., Springfield, was found dead in a room of Bond's Motel about a mile and a half south of Winchester on Rte. 11. Frederick County (Va.) Medical Examiner Douglas O. Hill said pathological tests revealed Wamsley died of an overdose of sleeping pills.
